

ACB CARIBBEAN LOUIS H. LOCKHART SCHOLARSHIP

The ACB Caribbean Louis H. Lockhart Scholarship was launched in 1993 to honour the contributions of one of the founders of Antigua Commercial Bank Ltd., now trading as ACB Caribbean, the country's first indigenous bank, Louis H. Lockhart. It was implemented to provide an opportunity for citizens to realize their dreams of obtaining a tertiary education.

The Scholarship has become one of the most successful and prestigious scholarship programmes in Antigua and Barbuda.

APPLICATION CRITERIA

Eligibility

The scholarship targets students who are enrolled in an accredited college, university or vocational educational institution for the final year of study leading to the completion of a first degree (Bachelor's Degree). The applicant must be a citizen of Antigua and Barbuda – proof of citizenship will be required.

The parameters for selection include but are not limited to academic excellence, financial need, personal motivation, educational and career goals, character, and extra-curricular activities.

Scholarships for study at non regional institutions would be considered only where the course of study is not available at a regional institution.

Area of Study

The scholarship will be for the completion of a first degree in the primary areas of Banking, Finance, Accounting, Investment and other related business disciplines to include Human Resource Management, Risk and Compliance, Actuarial Studies, Economics, Computer Science / Information Technology, Management Information Systems, Data Science and Marketing.
